POINTS OF INTEREST.

MONUMENT MOUNTAIN—Four miles from the village; long famous for its views of extraordinary beauty from the summit.

ELDON'S CAVE—It is in the Tom Ball range of mountains, near the valley of Williamsville, in the town of West Stockbridge, and is of limestone formation. When lighted by a torch or candle, the cave has the appearance of being a cave of diamonds, and the sight is dazlingly beautiful.

BELCHER'S CAVE—In the north end of the village, where a spur of the mountain comes to an abrupt end. The cave is formed by the disruption and falling together of rocks.

MOUNT PETER—At the south end of the village, a most pleasant walk, and an easy one. From its summit charming views can be had.

EAST ROCK AND PROSPECT ROCK—To the top of Mount Bryant at an elevation of 1,448 feet above the sea, affords a resting place commanding one of the broadest and finest of Berkshire's many Mountain Top outlooks.

JUNE MOUNTAIN—Seven miles distant. The views cannot be excelled.

LAKE BUEL—Six miles distant to which thousands of people visit every summer. Picnic grounds with boating are for the accommodation of the public.

ICE GULF—Where ice is found all summer. Situated in the mountain half a mile to the west of Lake Buel.

MINERAL SPRINGS—Three miles from the village, sought for its curative effects on cutaneous diseases.

LONG LAKE—Three miles to the west of north. No lake in the country has more picturesque surroundings.

SEDGWICK INSTITUTE,

GREAT BARRINGTON,

BERKSHIRE CO., - MASS.

Principal, E. J. VAN LENNEP, A. M.

THE SEDGWICK INSTITUTE is a select and strictly limited home school for young men and boys. It furnishes courses of thorough preparation for college or business, with that personal attention to the needs of each individual, which can hardly be secured with large numbers.

The formation of character is held to be the most important element in education.

Constant attention is paid to physical development, under proper supervision; the results have been uniformly gratifying.

The school occupies one of the finest positions in town, and is complete in all its appointments.

For terms and particulars, apply to the Principal.
